Synopsis:

Robert Scott is a senior member of a highly secretive special ops force who is recruited to find the missing daughter of a government official. Working with a special task force, Scott and his protege, Curtis, stumble upon a white slavery ring which may have something to do with Laura's disappearance. However, political pressures cause the mission to come to an abrupt conclusion with media reports of the girl's death. But Curtis and Scott believe the girl is still alive and that there is a high reaching conspiracy at work that puts their continued unofficial investigation, themselves and the girl in danger.
